

Anthony TRIPPE's Biography

Anthony Trippe is Sr. Innovation Manager at CAS where he is responsible for creating new product ideas around the area of chemical and life sciences information. Mr. Trippe has a long history of working in the patent information field and has been a sought after speaker for many years on the topic of patent analysis and visualization. He has a background in organic chemistry having gotten a Master's degree in synthetic organic chemistry and worked early in his career at several different pharmaceutical companies.