

George SHRECK'S Biography

George Shreck is a Product Manager for Landon IP, Inc. and its subsidiary Patent Resources Group (PRG). Landon IP is a global leader in professional patent searching, analysis, information retrieval and training with 170 employees in the United States. PRG is the leading educator of patent professionals in the United States. Approximately 4,000 professionals attend PRG programs annually.

George has been with Landon IP/PRG since 2004. He has extensive knowledge of patent information research and product management. He is currently leading a major patent information software initiative at Landon IP that will dramatically impact the patent community. Mr. Shreck's current focus is the strategic improvement of current services and the successful completion of new product development initiatives. George has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Sciences and Communications from the University of Washington – Seattle.